

Message transmis par courriel le 16 avril 2025 par le recteur de l'UQAM, Stéphane Pallage, au président de l'Université Harvard, Alan Garber

Dear President Garber,

I want to congratulate you and Harvard University for resisting to President Trump's frontal attacks to the University's autonomy, academic freedom and collegiality. Those three values are pillars of what makes a university. Your courage is remarkable and should be praised. You are truly a model for all other University Presidents and Rectors across the world.

Thank you for taking this fight for the benefit of all universities.

With best regards,

Stéphane Pallage

—

Stéphane Pallage

Recteur

Université du Québec à Montréal